FONTANINI WEEKEND

October 4 & 5, 2003

Can you believe summer is over and fall is here? It seems like the Christmas decorations were just put away and here we are planning for the Holidays again—especially our Fontanini displays. Speaking of Fontanini—don't forget ZOE, the Special Event Figure available beginning Fontanini weekend. Rick Miller, our Fontanini representative from Roman, Inc., will be here Sunday, the 5th, to answer our questions and get us excited about ALL the new figures and buildings. Our Fontanini display is a must see!! We claim to have the largest in Northeastern Wisconsin! We will be offering a 10% discount on all Fontanini buildings and accessories ONLY during this special weekend event. In addition, anyone purchasing a Fontanini item on Saturday or Sunday will be registered to win a 5 1/2" corral or temple.

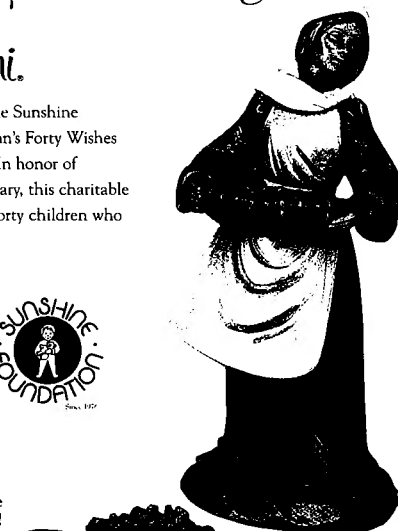

Introducing Zoe 2003 Special Event Figure

Sales of Zoe will support the Sunshine Foundation® through Roman's Forty Wishes for Forty Years Campaign. In honor of Roman's Fortieth Anniversary, this charitable effort will grant wishes to forty children who face serious life challenges.

Purchase Zoe and receive these FREE accessories!

Attend Our Special Event!

PUMPKIN FEST

October 18, 2003

Remember how much fun we had last year? Once again you will enjoy a Civil War Encampment and Casadys Critters on the lawn of The Old School. New to us is artist, James Dolan—he will demonstrate his watercolor painting. You may even want to purchase one of his paintings or Giclee reproductions!

Civil War re-enactors will be "in camp" all day to talk with you about the Civil War and show you a typical soldier's gear. A firing demonstration will take place at 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Look for the 1st U.S. Cavalry in the parade, too. Don't forget to see the Civil War Library on the second floor of The Old School.

Casadys Critters (petting zoo and pony rides) will be here from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

GALLERIE OF SHOPPES

November 1, 2003 – 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

The Old School is pleased to be a part of this year's Gallerie of Shoppes to be held at the Midway Hotel in Green Bay. This annual event is sponsored by the P.E.O. chapters in Green Bay and is held to raise funds for women who are continuing their education. Scholarships are given annually to qualifying women.

All shops participating for this day long shopping extravaganza give a percentage of their sales to this worthwhile endeavor. The Old School is proud to have been selected. Contact Mary for more information.

2nd ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE

November 22, 2003

Consider this your invitation to our 2nd Annual Open House on Saturday, November 22, 2003. Please stop in for refreshments, the sounds of Christmas by harpist, Nancy Blanchard-Watts, 10:00 a.m.-Noon, Holiday music by vocalist, Pamela MacMullen, with accompaniment by guitarist, Pat Roznowski, from noon-2:00 p.m., storytelling by Stu Smith at 2:00 p.m. and register for door prizes. We may have a few more surprises, too!! We would love to visit with you again and want you to see the changes we've made this year. Mark your calendar NOW!

MEET MARLIS!

MARLIS SKWOR has been an integral part of The Old School since October of 1981. In addition to "clerking & cleaning", Marlis is responsible for staffing and various financial and administrative duties. Her husband, Pete, actually attended "The Old School", as did their two sons, Jim and John. Marlis, though small in stature, is a powerhouse and keeps us on our toes. She loves to redecorate her home and when Pete goes fishing Marlis gets out the paintbrush and has one wall painted before Pete catches his first fish!!! She knows how to relax, however, as seen in this "candid" photo. Thanks, Marlis, for all your hard work and dedication.
